January 24, 25, 26, 27, 1950

And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia write; These things saith he that is holy, he that is true, he that hath the key of David, he that openeth, and no man shutteth; and shutteth, and no man openeth;

I know thy works: behold, I have set before thee an open door, and no man can shut it: for thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my name.

Behold, I will make them of the synagogue of Satan, which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie; behold, I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee.

Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, I also will keep thee from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world, to try them that dwell upon the earth.

Behold, I come quickly; hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take thy crown.

Him that overcometh will I make a pillar in the temple of my God; and he shall go no more out: and I will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, which is New Jerusalem, which cometh down out of heaven from my God: and I will write upon him my new name.

He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.
Revelation 3:7-13

We welcome you to our new home.

Please make yourself at home.

All sessions, with the exception of the Communion Service, will be held in new auditorium on the lower level. The cloak room, a telephone, and a men's room will be found on this level. At the far end of the corridor Augsburg Publishing House has its inviting display.

✦ ✦ ✦

The Students' Boarding Club will again serve you in the dining room of the old building. The tunnel just beyond the auditorium door will take you over. The noon meal will cost 85 cents, breakfast 40 cents, supper 50 cents.

✦ ✦ ✦

Please register. This will help us to serve you. Check the bulletin boards for telephone calls, telegrams, letters, and other messages.
