With God and His Mercy

With God and His mercy, His Spirit, and word,
And loving communion at altar and board,
We meet with assurance the dawn of each day:
The Shepherd is with us, the Shepherd is with us,
To lead and protect us, and teach us the way.

The sign of the cross we triumphantly bear,
Though none of our kindred that emblem may wear;
We joyfully follow the champions of right,
Who march on to glory, who march on to glory,
Who march on to glory, with weapons of might.

O Shepherd, abide with us, care for us still,
And feed us and lead us and teach us Thy will;
And when in Thy heavenly folds we shall be,
Our thanks and our praises, our thanks and our praises,
Our thanks and our praises we'll render to Thee.

Take My Life and Let It Be

Take my life, and let it be
Consecrated, Lord, to Thee;
Take my moments and my days,
Let them flow in ceaseless praise.

Take my hands, and let them move
With the impulse of Thy love:
Take my feet and let them be
Swift and beautiful for Thee.

Take my voice, and let me sing
Always, only for my King;
Take my lips, and let them be
Filled with messages from Thee.

Take my silver and my gold,
Not a mite would I withhold;
Take my intellect, and use
Every power as Thou dost choose.

Take my will and make it Thine;
It shall be no longer mine;
Take my heart, it is Thine own;
It shall be Thy royal throne.

Take my love; my Lord, I pour
At Thy feet its treasure store;
Take myself, and I will be
Ever, only, all for Thee.
